In my lifetime Great Britain has gone from “the sun never sets on the British Empire” to an inhabitable land where immigrant-invaders hunt down young Englis[illegible] subject them to gang-rape. A recent prime minister, Liz Truss, said in [illegible] interview that “an orthodoxy has taken over British institutions in the same way as it has taken over European institutions. That orthodoxy believes in mass migration, multiculturalism, toleration of Islamism. We have seen appalling coverups of grooming gangs in Britain with girls as young as 12 being systematically raped and no national inquiry. It's been covered up. There is a group of people who have essentially taken over our institutions with a particular world view and they don't want to be challenged, which is why we're seeing free speech being suppressed because they don't want people to know just how badly wrong it is going."

Organized gang-rape of women in UK cannot even be acknowledged, but Epstein's sex-trafficking is all over the news.

Shorn of its greatness, the remnant of a nation is now called the UK.

Jared Taylor [article below] documents the anti-white, pro-immigrant invader policy of the UK government:

The situation is the same in Scandinavia and Western Europe. In the US the Democrat Party's agenda is a Sodom & Gomorrah Tower of Babel, and about half of white Americans vote in favor of their own demise. It seems that white ethnicities everywhere have lost survival instinct. Perhaps a few white people will be kept in zoos as examples of racist exploiters.

SAVE OUR KIDS

Several things happened in Britain this month that caught my eye. Straight-A student Courtney Wright, age 12, was sent home from the Bilton School in Warwickshire for wearing a Union Jack dress to school on Culture Celebration Day.

Veils, head coverings, and Kinte cloth were OK, but not the British flag. Students honoring the Welsh dragon or flag of England were also sent home.

This month, the King of England, one of whose titles is “Defender of the Faith,” inaugurated the King Charles III Wing of the Oxford Centre for Islamic Studies. Here he is, grinning at representatives of a religion that has a mission to dominate the world. Did he spend 50 years waiting in the wings for this?

In Epping, just north of London, there have been days of protest after an illegal immigrant was charged with sexually assaulting a 14-year-old girl.

Hadush Kebatu had sneaked across the English Channel just eight days before, and, of course, was living for free in a hotel. Demonstrators chanted “save our kids” and were tagged as far-right extremists.

A lady spoke about the need to “protect our kids.” How to do that?

“Send them home,” along with equally loud shouts of “Stop the boats.”

These were ordinary Britons, furious at a failed government they are determined to fight.

Epping's member of parliament, Neil Hudson, predicted a "summer of riots."

In response, just this week, Labor Deputy Prime Minister Angela Rayner admitted that "we must tackle [the] profound impact of migration," adding that the government must understand "real concerns people have."

So, what's her plan? "Billions of pounds of investment over 10 years in hundreds of the most deprived places, 'to restore pride in people's local areas and improve people's lives'."

Is it humanly possible to be that stupid? The people of Epping aren't asking for handouts. They want Epping the way it was — a home for English people.

The rulers of Britain seem to be pathologically incapable of understanding race or culture or religion. Jess Phillips is nothing less than Under-Secretary of State for Safeguarding and Violence Against Women and Girls.

Look at how she answers a question from a man who calls himself Max K.

Afghans are 20 times more likely than Brits to commit sex crimes, but, for her, the problem isn't Afghans; it's men. This borders on insanity.

These are the very people who looked the other way during what's been called "grooming," but should be called "the industrial-scale rape of poor and working-class girls by . . . Pakistani Muslim men, covered up because the authorities were terrified of being called racist."

That was at the height of "MeToo," when feminists bellowed about "toxic masculinity" and "rape culture," but called you a bigot if you pointed out that foreign brutes were gang-raping white 11-year-olds.

Cr

And there are more foreigners all the time — despite strong majorities of voters who say they want no more.

The top blue line in this graph is total immigration by year. From 2014 to 2019, it was about 800,000 a year — already a huge number of a country of 65 million. In 2016, many people voted for Brexit because they hoped that would mean fewer immigrants. But no. There was a little dip during Covid, and then the number soared to more than 1,200,000. It just came down under a million last year.

Mass immigration is what gives rise to headlines like: “White Britons will be MINORITY in UK within next 40 years, new report suggests.”

Current update: in 38 years, in 2063.

Sometimes it seems like whites are already a minority. Here are some mayors of major British cities — all Muslims.

I’m sorry, but it revolts me to see foreigners dressed in these ceremonial robes of office — topped by a little Muzzie hat like Mohammed Asaduzzaman, mayor of Brighton and Hove.

And you better not complain about the Great Replacement. A man made a video like this one. Except that his commentary was different: “Look at this crap. You let them into the country and this is the shit they come up with.” That got him arrested for a hate crime investigation — later dropped.

You remember this fellow, Axel Rudakubana, who just a year ago launched a slasher attack at a children’s dance class in Southport.

He killed, from left to right — Elsie Stancombe (7 years old), stabbed 85 times, Alice Aguiar (9 years old), number of stab wounds unreported, and Bebe King (6 years old), stabbed 122 times.

He also stabbed eight more children and two adults who tried to stop him. Number of wounds not reported.

At least a few Brits don't take kindly to this sort of thing, and some got frisky.

Bernadette Spofforth posted on X — adding "if this is true" — that the killer was a recent asylum seeker.

This turned out not to be true and she deleted the post, but five policemen, three squad cars, and a prison van showed up to arrest her. She was held in a concrete cell for 36 hours and released on bail — on the condition that she not use social media.

Since getting back on, she has become a free speech advocate.

Good luck with that. Britain is so terrified of free speech that nine years ago, it banned me from the country.

Let's get back to his royal highness. Some people think he's a closet Muslim. In 1993, he said: "Many of the traits on which modern Europe prides itself came to it from Muslim Spain. Diplomacy, free trade, open borders, the techniques of academic research, of anthropology, etiquette, fashion, various types of medicine . . . ." He went on: "Islam is part of our past and our present, in all fields of human endeavour. . . . It is part of our own inheritance, not a thing apart." Islam might be better than Christianity because "Islam can teach us today a way of understanding and living in the world which Christianity itself is the poorer for having lost." By this, he means a unified view of the universe, which no doubt all Muslims have.

The king took lessons in Arabic so he could study the Koran in the original and understand inscriptions in mosques and at museums.

He also warned before he was crowned that although his title would be “defender of the faith,” he would consider himself “defender of faith.”

Some will say he just does what his overlords, the Jews, or the Masons, or the globalists tell him. I don’t think anyone could make him talk this way and study Arabic. This guy is his own kind of cuckoo bird.

The country seems to be slitting its own throat with more energy and enthusiasm than any other. During our BLM year of peak madness — when we were pulling down statues of white men all over the country — Britain was the only place that merrily followed suit.

Edward Colston, Robert Baden-Powell, William Beckford, Thomas Picton, Robert Milligan.

Even Winston Churchill had to be boxed up for fear he would be vandalized or torn down.

We have pulled back a bit from the precipice, but Britain has not. Nor does it have a political party that understands anything. Nigel Farage of the Reform Party angrily rejects remigration and bans any talk of race.

Britain is the land of my ancestors, and it grieves me to see it dying of self-slaughter. Who, today, would dare sing “Rule Britannia”? or words like these:

“Land of Hope and Glory, Mother of the Free,
How shall we extol thee, who are born of thee?”

Born of thee? What about Pakis?

And could anyone sing seriously about:

“A stern and silent pride;

Not that false joy that dreams content

With what our sires have won;

The blood a hero sire hath spent

Still nerves a hero son.”

Blood, heroes, sires, sons. That’s toxic masculinity.

There’s also a 1939 song called, “There’ll Always Be an England.”

There may be a place that’s called that, but unless the British are careful, it certainly will not be English.

White Ethnicities Are an Extremely Endangered Species

Paul Craig Roberts | PaulCraigRoberts.org

The extremely anti-white British ethnic tyranny that rules in the UK is determined to replace the ethnic population of the country with dark-skinned immigrant-invaders. The government presents Russia as the enemy, while immigrant-invaders aided and abetted by the UK government overrun the UK and exist off the captured people's resources.

The immigrant-invaders round up young English girls in harems for gang rape, and the government looks to Ghislaine Maxwell as the enabler of child rape. The immigrant-invaders lack for nothing and are increasingly immune to English law. Recently an English judge turned loose two immigrant-invaders' proven guilty of the gang rape of a 14 year old English girl because they were merely expressing their cultural values. Multiculturalism is a Tower of Babel with many values. All must be accepted. Rape, murder, these are just "cultural values."

The English people, like those of Europe and America, have long been indoctrinated that multiculturalism is the greatest good and, consequently they have stupidly failed to resist the invasion that has now destroyed their countries. When the facts of raped 10 year old daughters overcame the brainwashing, the English have realized too late that they are a lost people.

The anti-white UK government how has an "Online Safety Act" which is used to block awareness of rape of ethnic British under age girls by immigrant-invaders.

Forty or more years too late, the insouciant English people have finally realized that England is no longer theirs. Their country belongs to Indians, Pakistanis, Arabs, Africans. It belongs to anyone but the English.

The British police represent not the English but the immigrant-invaders. The British police never attack immigrant invaders–that would be a hate crime. The British police only attack White English Citizens and knock their teeth out as the second video in the link below shows.

It is routine now for the British police to protect immigrant invaders, and never the English population.

The UK police only arrest English ethnics who protest the theft of their country.

Notice that the UK police who protect the immigrant-invaders but never English citizens are white. The destruction of the West is assured when white police only attack whites.

So, we have the police authority of the white English ethnic country directed only against the white ethnic English citizens of the country.

https://www.infowars.com/posts/footage-from-anti-migration-protests-blocked-on-x-in-uk-as-online-safety-act-comes-into-effect

The UK now has an elite police unit whose job is not to patrol the streets or to protect English women from being captured and used by immigrant-invader rape gangs who live in hotels paid for by the British population. The purpose of the elite police unit is to monitor social media for anti-migrant sentiment. There you have it. An ethnic British citizen cannot complain about the rape of a daughter, sister, or wife and is taxed to pay for the housing of immigrant-invaders whether or not the taxpayer is able to pay for his own housing. https://archive.is/20250727071426/https://www.telegraph.co.uk/politics/2025/07/26/elite-police-unit-to-monitor-online-critics-of-migrants/#selection-3289.39-3289.87

What is happening in UK is not only the demise of free speech but also the criminalization of opposition to becoming subjects of privileged immigrant-invaders. By aligning with the anti-white government, the stupid British police have lost the support of the ethnic British population.

King Charles also seems to have aligned with the immigrant-invaders, which might bring the end of the British monarchy.
